(A) The remedial benefits gained by effectuating the public policy of the state declared in section 1 of this chapter.

(B) The prejudice likely to accrue to the public if the policy, decision, or final action is voided, including the extent to which persons have relied upon the validity of the challenged action and the effect declaring the challenged action void would have on them.

(4) Whether the defendant acted in compliance with an informal inquiry response or advisory opinion issued by the public access counselor concerning the violation.

(e) If a court declares a policy, decision, or final action of a governing body of a public agency void, the court may enjoin the governing body from subsequently acting upon the subject matter of the voided act until it has been given substantial reconsideration at a meeting or meetings that comply with this chapter.

(f) In any action filed under this section, a court shall award reasonable attorney's fees, court costs, and other reasonable expenses of litigation to the prevailing party if:

(1) the plaintiff prevails; or

(2) the defendant prevails and the court finds that the action is frivolous and vexatious.

The plaintiff is not eligible for the awarding of attorney's fees, court costs, and other reasonable expenses if the plaintiff filed the action without first seeking and receiving an informal inquiry response or advisory opinion from the public access counselor, unless the plaintiff can show the filing of the action was necessary to prevent a violation of this chapter.

No request may be denied because the person making the request refuses to state the purpose of the request, unless such condition is required by other applicable statute.

(b) A public agency may not deny or interfere with the exercise of the right stated in subsection (a). The public agency shall either:

(1) provide the requested copies to the person making the request; or

(2) allow the person to make copies:
(A) on the agency's equipment; or

(C) with respect to disclosure related to a political purpose, prohibiting the disclosure of the list to individuals and entities for political purposes.

A policy adopted under subdivision (3)(A) or (3)(B) must be uniform and may not discriminate among similarly situated commercial entities. For purposes of this subsection, "political purposes" means influencing the election of a candidate for federal, state, legislative, local, or school board office or the outcome of a public question or attempting to solicit a contribution to influence the election of a candidate for federal, state, legislative, local, or school board office or the outcome of a public question.

17 SECTION 8. IC 5-14-3-9, AS AMENDED BY P.L.22-2005,
18 SECTION 2, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE
19 JULY 1, 2010]: Sec. 9. (a) A denial of disclosure by a public agency
20 occurs when the person making the request is physically present in the 21 office of the agency, makes the request by telephone, or requests
22 enhanced access to a document and:

23 (1) the person designated by the public agency as being
24 responsible for public records release decisions refuses to permit
25 inspection and copying of a public record when a request has 26 been made; or

27 (2) twenty-four (24) hours elapse after any employee of the public
28 agency refuses to permit inspection and copying of a public
29 record when a request has been made;

30 whichever occurs first.

31 (b) If a person requests by mail or by facsimile a copy or copies of 32 a public record, a denial of disclosure does not occur until seven (7)
33 days have elapsed from the date the public agency receives the request.

34 (c) If a request is made orally, either in person or by telephone, a
35 public agency may deny the request orally. However, if a request
36 initially is made in writing, by facsimile, or through enhanced access,
37 or if an oral request that has been denied is renewed in writing or by 38 facsimile, a public agency may deny the request if:

39 (1) the denial is in writing or by facsimile; and

40 (2) the denial includes:

41 (A) a statement of the specific exemption or exemptions
42 authorizing the withholding of all or part of the public record;

1 and

2 (B) the name and the title or position of the person responsible
3 for the denial.

4 (d) This subsection applies to a board, a commission, a department,
5 a division, a bureau, a committee, an agency, an office, an
6 instrumentality, or an authority, by whatever name designated,
7 exercising any part of the executive, administrative, judicial, or
8 legislative power of the state. If an agency receives a request to inspect 9 or copy a record that the agency considers to be excepted from 10 disclosure under section 4(b)(19) of this chapter, the agency may 11 consult with the counterterrorism and security council established by 12 IC 10-19-8-1. If an agency denies the disclosure of a record or a part of 13 a record under section 4(b)(19) of this chapter, the agency or the 14 counterterrorism and security council shall provide a general
15 description of the record being withheld and of how disclosure of the 16 record would have a reasonable likelihood of threatening the public
17 safety.

18 (e) A person who has been denied the right to inspect or copy a
19 public record by a public agency may file an action in the circuit or 20 superior court of the county in which the denial occurred to compel the 21 public agency to permit the person to inspect and copy the public
22 record. Whenever an action is filed under this subsection, the public
23 agency must notify each person who supplied any part of the public
24 record at issue:

25 (1) that a request for release of the public record has been denied;

26 and

27 (2) whether the denial was in compliance with an informal inquiry
28 response or advisory opinion of the public access counselor.

29 Such persons are entitled to intervene in any litigation that results from 30 the denial. The person who has been denied the right to inspect or copy
31 need not allege or prove any special damage different from that
32 suffered by the public at large.

33 (f) The court shall determine the matter de novo, with the burden of 34 proof on the public agency to sustain its denial. If the issue in de novo
35 review under this section is whether a public agency properly denied
36 access to a public record because the record is exempted under section
37 4(a) of this chapter, the public agency meets its burden of proof under 38 this subsection by establishing the content of the record with adequate
39 specificity and not by relying on a conclusory statement or affidavit.

40 (g) If the issue in a de novo review under this section is whether a 41 public agency properly denied access to a public record because the 42 record is exempted under section 4(b) of this chapter:

o
p
y

(1) the public agency meets its burden of proof under this subsection by:

(A) proving that the record falls within any one (1) of the categories of exempted records under section 4(b) of this chapter; and

(B) establishing the content of the record with adequate specificity and not by relying on a conclusory statement or affidavit; and

(2) a person requesting access to a public record meets the person's burden of proof under this subsection by proving that the denial of access is arbitrary or capricious.

(h) The court may review the public record in camera to determine whether any part of it may be withheld under this chapter. However, if the complaint alleges that a public agency denied disclosure of a public record by redacting information in the public record, the court shall conduct an in camera inspection of the public record without the information redacted.

(i) In any action filed under this section, a court shall award reasonable attorney's fees, court costs, and other reasonable expenses of litigation to the prevailing party if:

(1) the plaintiff substantially prevails; or

(2) the defendant substantially prevails and the court finds the action was frivolous or vexatious.

The plaintiff is not eligible for the awarding of attorney's fees, court costs, and other reasonable expenses if the plaintiff filed the action without first seeking and receiving an informal inquiry response or advisory opinion from the public access counselor, unless the plaintiff can show the filing of the action was necessary because the denial of access to a public record under this chapter would prevent the plaintiff from presenting that public record to a public agency preparing to act on a matter of relevance to the public record whose disclosure was denied.

(j) A court may assess a civil penalty against a public agency and an individual under section 9.5 of this chapter.

~~(j)~~ (k) A court shall expedite the hearing of an action filed under this section.

SECTION 9. IC 5-14-3-9.5 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2010]: Sec. 9.5. (a) This section applies only to an individual who is:

(A) the person's request meets the requirements of this chapter; and

(B) the record is subject to disclosure by law.

(d) The court may impose against each entity listed in subsection (c) the following civil penalties:

(1) Not more than one hundred dollars ($100) for the first violation.

(2) Not more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each additional violation.

The penalty imposed under this section is in addition to any other civil or criminal penalty imposed.

(e) A court shall distribute monthly to the auditor of state any penalties collected under this section for deposit in the education fund established by IC 5-14-4-14.

(f) An individual is personally liable for a civil penalty imposed under this section. A civil penalty imposed against a public agency shall be paid from the public agency's budget.

(g) If an officer of a public agency directs an individual who is employed in a management level position to perform any action under subsection (b)(1), the management level employee is not subject to civil penalties under subsection (c).

SECTION 10. IC 5-14-3-10 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2010]: Sec. 10. (a) A public employee, a public official, or an employee or officer of a contractor or subcontractor of a public agency, except as provided by IC 4-15-10, who knowingly or intentionally discloses information classified as confidential by state statute commits a Class A misdemeanor.

(d) This section does not apply to any provision incorporated into state law from a federal statute.

(b) The fund consists of the following:

(1) Civil penalties collected under IC 5-14-1.5-7.5 and IC 5-14-3-9.5.

(2) Money appropriated by the general assembly.

(3) Grants, gifts, contributions, and money received from any other source.

(c) The treasurer of state shall administer the fund. The following may be paid from money in the fund:

(1) Expenses of administering the fund.

(2) Nonrecurring administrative expenses incurred to carry out the purposes of this section.

(d) Money in the fund at the end of a state fiscal year does not revert to the state general fund.

(e) The treasurer of state shall invest the money in the fund not currently needed to meet the obligations of the fund in the same manner as other public funds may be invested. Interest that accrues from these investments shall be deposited in the fund.

SECTION 12. IC 5-14-5-9 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2010]: Sec. 9. Except as provided in section 10 of this chapter, the counselor shall issue an advisory opinion on the complaint not later than thirty (30) days after:

 6 CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS
 7 [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2010]: Sec. 10.5. (a) Except as provided in
 8 subsection (e), if a formal complaint is filed alleging that a public
